Westport, Connecticut

Sponsored by the
Unitarian Universalist District of Metropolitan New York

This is a workshop for those who wish to:

- ✓ Energize and revitalize an existing Small Group Ministry program in their congregation
- ✓ Initiate a Small Group Ministry program in their congregation
- ✓ Gain skills and insight for running a successful program
- ✓ Understand the transformative promise of covenantal groups

Who: Teams (two-person minimum) from congregations with existing Small Group Ministry programs and from congregations wishing to introduce programs

When: February 24, 2007; 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. (light breakfast at 9:00)

Where: Unitarian Church in Westport, 10 Lyons Rd, Westport CT. For directions, visit <http://www.uuwestport.org/directions.html>.

Cost: $30 each for the first two registrants from the same congregation; $20 each for additional people from the same congregation. Lunch and light breakfast are included.

Registration: Register online at <https://www.formdesk.com/uiforms/SGMWorkshop> no later than February 21, 2007. If you need assistance, contact Laurie Golson, District Administrator, at 914-271-7861 or ls.golson@verizon.net.

Trainers: Rev. Calvin O. Dame served a congregation that helped to introduce Small Group Ministry to Unitarian Universalist congregations. A cofounder of the UU Small Group Ministry Network, he has extensively written, spoken, and provided training in Small Group Ministry. He is presently serving as the District Interim Congregational Services Consultant.

Rev. Christine Reed is co-minister of the Princeton congregation and an experienced Small Group Ministry Program coordinator.
