

Garden City NY Congregation Votes on Social Justice Resolutions

The Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Central Nassau in Garden City NY passed two important social justice resolutions at a special Congregational Meeting on December 11, 2005.

The first was in response to an invitation from the UU Congregation at Shelter Rock to join them in resolving to stop US sponsored torture. Read more at <http://uuccnsocialaction.blogspot.com/2005/12/anti-torture-resolution-unitarian.html>.

The second resolution confirms our commitment to take action against the humanitarian crisis in Darfur as our International Social Justice issue for 2006. We invite all congregations to join us in educating and advocating around this serious issue. Read more at <http://uuccnsocialaction.blogspot.com/2005/12/darfur-crisis-uuccn-international.html>.
