Sources: A Unitarian Universalist Cantata is a multi-movement choral work which engages our theological diversity through a musical exploration of the six sources of our living tradition. It is a celebration of Unitarian Universalism, a statement about who we are today and where we are headed in terms of our self-understanding as people of faith.

The work is scored for SATB chorus, piano, strings and percussion. Printed scores and parts are available on-loan from the Church of the Larger Fellowship's (CLF) Lending Library (<http://clfuu.org>) to UU congregations or groups of congregations (i.e. district or cluster groups) for a maximum of two months. These scores are made available for postage fees only because of the extraordinary generosity of the Unitarian Universalist Funding Program and a wide range of sponsors.

Perusal scores can be downloaded from Jason Shelton's website:
