

Lifespan Faith Development Welcomes New Members to Family Matters Task Force

Rev. Keith Kron, Director of the Office Bisexual, Gay, Lesbian, and Transgender Concerns and Tracey Hurd, Children and Families Programs Director, are co-conveners of the UUA Family Matters Task Force. They are honored to report that the following distinguished individuals have agreed to serve this year. They are:

- Mr. James Coomes, who has served the UUA in many capacities and currently works as a licensed clinical social worker in public mental health in Los Angeles, CA
- Rev. Sofia Craethnenn, who is the UUA's Program Coordinator for Racial and Ethnic Concerns
- Ms. Gail Forsyth-Vail, Director of Religious Education from North Andover, MA
- Rev. Hope Johnson, parish minister at Garden City, NY
- Rev. Phil Lund, Prairie Star District Lifespan Program Director
- Ms. Esther Rosado, Director of Religious Education, Medford, MA.

Youth members are still being finalized.