

Team Development and Shared Leadership Workshop

Where: UU Church at Washington Crossing (Titusville NJ)

When: 4 Sessions: October 13, November 17, January 19, 2008, and February 16, 2008

What: This exciting new course, offered by the Church's Adult Religious Education Committee and Leadership Development Group, provides the opportunity to improve your ability to effectively lead teams you work with both in your congregation and at work. Each participant will structure his/her own specific leadership plan with the help of the facilitators and colleagues in the program. This plan will guide your leadership development beyond the boundaries of the course. It will combine leadership training with the blending of UU religious values and fellowship in a nurturing environment. This extensive study encourages and assists in the continuing search to integrate UU values with daily life and interaction.

Facilitators: Karen and Rich DiGeorgio: Karen and Rich both have years of experience in leadership development. Rich has been Manager of Training and Organizational Development for large corporations and has been a consultant as well. He has a Masters degree from Columbia University and has held many leadership roles in the American Society of Training and Development and the Human Resource Planning Society. Karen has had wide experience in communication and team-related issues. She is a communications coach with a Masters degree from Adelphia University and is a certified speech and hearing professional.

Fee: $100 for UUCWC members; $125 for others (includes lunch at each session)

Enrollment: Minimum 12; Maximum 20
