

Garden City Congregation Creates Adult RE Course Based on Committee on Appraisal Report

On November 6, 2005, our next Adult RE course begins - Engaging Our Theological Diversity. It will be an intensive, hard-hitting discussion of the possibility of a coherent, broad and common theological perspective and language of reverence in Unitarian Universalism, following on the May 2005 report of the UUA's Committee on Appraisal. Four Weeks, beginning November 6, 2005. Time 12:45 p.m. to 2:45 p.m., after services. Facilitators: David McClean, Hope Johnson. Open to UUs from all Long Island congregations, and beyond.

Resources: It is highly recommended that participants obtain a copy of the Commission's report at the UUA Bookstore. Click here for the link to the book:

http://www.uua.org/bookstore/product_info.php?cPath=3_9&products_id=1501.

Also, here is a page at the UUA web-site that summarizes the issues:

<http://www.uua.org/coa/TheoDiversity/index.html>.

Also, here is an article I wrote on the issues raised in the book:

Come and participate in a discussion of the future and direction of Unitarian Universalism!
