Leaders:

Rev. Laurie J. Auffant is the minister of the Unitarian Universalists of Lowell, an Emerging Congregation in the Unitarian Universalist Association, founded in June 2006 as an intentionally welcoming community of faith committed to justice and the full inclusion of all people. Rev. Laurie is a certified Trainer for Our Whole Lives young adult and adult programs. She identifies as Puerto Rican and transgender, and has conducted anti-racism and GBLT trainings in many colleges, congregations, and districts. Rev. Laurie is married to Lisa Rubin who is the Director of Religious Education in Bedford, Massachusetts. Rev. Laurie serves on the Growth Team for Clara Barton District and is a member of the UU Minister's Association.

Kirsten deFur is a lifelong Unitarian Universalist and identifies as a sexuality educator. She received her Master of Public Health degree from Columbia University, concentrating in Sexuality & Health. Not only has she facilitated the 4-6, 7-8 and Young Adult OWL programs, she participated in the About Your Sexuality (AYS) program as an adolescent. Kirsten currently works for the Mayor's Office to Combat Domestic Violence as as the Adolescent Dating Violence Prevention Project Director. Kirsten lives in Brooklyn, NY with her cat Franklin and her roommate Nina.

Tell me more!

Our Whole Lives is based on a philosophy of comprehensive sexuality education which helps participants make informed and responsible decisions about their sexual health and behavior. It equips participants with accurate, age-appropriate information in six subject areas: human development, relationships, personal skills, sexual behavior, sexual health and society and culture. Grounded in a holistic view of sexuality, comprehensive sexuality education provides not only facts about anatomy and human development, but also helps leaders to clarify their values, build interpersonal skills, and understand the spiritual, emotional, social and political aspects of sexuality as well.
