Leaders:

Lara Campbell is the Director of Religious Education at Community Unitarian Church at White Plains, NY. She is a fifth generation UU with an extensive UU leadership background, including having served as a RE program assistant, middle and high school youth advisor, chaplain for district and continental YRUU conferences, and participating in Young Adult programming. She is also a continental trainer of teachers for the both the Our Whole Lives 7-9/10-12 and the K-1/4-6 programs and one of the developers of the YRUU Chaplain Training Program. Lara has a MA in Marriage and Family Therapy and a BA in Family Social Science. Her previous employment includes being a youth development specialist, a health educator, an elementary school counselor, and a substance abuse and reproductive health counselor.

Kevin Drewery is the Director of Lifespan Faith Development for the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Las Vegas, Nevada. He first encountered the Our Whole Lives curricula as a guest panelist for a session on Bi-Sexual/Gay/Lesbian/Transgender issues for an Our Whole Lives 7-9 class in Adelphi, Maryland in spring of 2000. Kevin is an Our Whole Lives 7-9 and 10-12 facilitator and a trainer for the K-1 and 4-6 curricula. He has previous experience as a sexuality educator. During the late eighties and early nineties, Kevin did Safer-Sex trainings for gay and lesbian hotline volunteers in Greensboro, North Carolina as well as an annual training for the Gay/Straight Alliance at Guilford College. Our Whole Lives is just one part of his ministry to children and youth. He is also a trained YRUU Chaplain and a Spirituality Development Conference trainer.

Tell me more!

Our Whole Lives is based on a philosophy of comprehensive sexuality education which helps participants make informed and responsible decisions about their sexual health and behavior. It equips participants with accurate, age-appropriate information in six subject areas: human development, relationships, personal skills, sexual behavior, sexual health and society and culture. Grounded in a holistic view of sexuality, comprehensive sexuality education provides not only facts about anatomy and human development, but also helps leaders to clarify their values, build interpersonal skills, and understand the spiritual, emotional, social and political aspects of sexuality as well.
